

Getting to the Shanghai New International Expo Centre

The Shanghai New International Expo Centre has an outstanding transportation infrastructure. Whether you are traveling to the fair by plane, train, automobile or public transportation, we have put together some extensive information and research tools to help you plan your trip.

Built by the Shanghai Pudong Land Development Corporation and three of Germany's largest trade-fair companies—Munich, Hannover and Duesseldorf—the Shanghai New International Expo Centre has all the facilities and services of a modern trade-fair center. At SNIEC, you can expect to experience world-class standards.

SNIEC is strategically located in Pudong's key economic development zone. There are two public traffic interchanges for bus and metro, one called "Longyang Road Station" (about a 10-minute walk from the station to the fairgrounds), and one called "Huamu Road Station" (about a 1-minute walk from the station to the fairgrounds).
